

EUFORMAG's main activity is the exchange of articles between the partner journals.

This data base contains the articles that each participating magazine has chosen to share with the other EUFORMAG partners . The search process allows to select the available articles, to display a form with detailed information and abstract.

{loadposition database0}{loadposition database}